Historical Perspective
Swedish-American Patriotic League on the occasion of its Centennial Anniversary
by Ted Olsson

The Swedish-American Patriotic League evolved from the efforts of the local Swedish community, which produced the highly successful Sweden Day at San Francisco's Midwinter Fair on Monday, May 14, 1894 held in Golden Gate Park. The combined efforts of all local Swedish organizations fostered such comraderie and sense of pride that they decided to remain together as a congress of clubs to promote the individual and organizational welfare of each other and specifically to produce an annual Midsummer festival to remind them of "the old country" by celebrating their happiest holiday in this new land. The League has fulfilled this last mandate faithfully, producing its centennial Midsummer last year, the oldest continuously celebrated Midsummer festival outside of Sweden. The Swedish-American Patriotic League was formed in San Francisco one hundred years ago today, on January 28, 1895, and was later incorporated in California on June 30, 1911.

The initial League of 1895 consisted of 26 delegates representing 10 organizations: The Swedish Society (6); Knights of the Golden Banner (3); The Swedish Relief Society (3); The Republican Club of San Francisco (3); The Political Club in Oakland (3); Logen Valkyria [Ladies of the Knights of the Golden Banner] (2); The Lutheran Young People's Society (2); Freja Lodge in Oakland [Swedish Ladies Relief] (2); The Swedish Singers (1); and Templet Svanen [a temperance club] (1). Of these The Swedish Society, proprietor of the Swedish-American Hall in San Francisco, was the oldest and largest organization, and remains the oldest today.

In 1915 SAPL repeated its Midsummer triumph at the World's Fair, and again for the Golden Gate International Exposition on Treasure Island in 1940. In 1917, with no bridges, attending SAPL meetings in the City was difficult, so in that year the lodges in the East Bay formed a separate League, affiliating with the original one as SAPL—Oakland, Branch #1. In addition to their own activities, they participate fully in those of the SAPL. In 1925 SAPL entered a float in the Portola Festival celebrating California's Jubilee. A year later they purchased Sveadal and that year hosted their Royal Highnesses, Crown Prince Gustaf Adolph and Princess Louise, when they dedicated the grounds. Through the years the League has hosted royalty, dignitaries, and performing artists. In 1964 they received Prince Bertil, participating in Sweden Week in San Francisco. During the 60's the royal naval vessel Alvsnaben visited San Francisco several times, once with today's King aboard, then Crown Prince undergoing obligatory military service. During this time the Prince made his first official speech at the Oakland League's reception. Princess Christina was received by SAPL in the 60s in San Francisco and again in 1988 where, as part of New Sweden '88, she rededicated Sveadal. Later SAPL hosted the Swedish troupe, which produced Värmlänningarna in Sveadal. Today SAPL continues to promote and to perpetuate Swedish traditions in the San Francisco Bay Area, passing them on to future generations.

THE STAR SPANGLED BANNER

Oh say, can you see
By the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hailed
At the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars
Through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watched,
Were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets red glare
The bombs bursting in air
Gave proof through the night
That our flag was still there.
Oh say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave,
O'er the land of the free
And the home of the brave?

DU GAMLA, DU FRIA, DU FJÄLLHÖGA NORD

Du gamla, du fria, du fjällhöga Nord,
du tysta, du glädjrika sköna!
Jag hälsar dig vänaste land uppå jord,
din sol, din himmel, dina ängder gröna!
Din sol, din himmel, dina ängder gröna!

Du tronar på minnen från fornstora dar,
då ärat ditt namn flög över jorden.
Jag vet, att du är och du blir, vad du var.
Ja, jag vill leva, jag vill dö i Norden,
Ja, jag vill leva, jag vill dö i Norden.

Translation

O glorious mountain crown'd land of the North,
thou quiet thou joyous land, I love thee,
I hail thee as fairest of lands on this earth;
Thy meadows green, the sun in heav'n above thee,
The meadows green, the sun in heav'n above thee.

Thy throne is the mem'ry of great days of yore,
when all through the world thy name was carried,
thou art this, I know, the same as of old.
In thee I'll live, in thee I'll die, thou North Land,
In thee I'll live, in thee I'll die, thou North Land.
